

ISEN Trainee Travel Award Scholarship

May 5th 2024
601 Lexington Avenue
New York, NY 10022

Annual Meeting

The International Society of ECT and Neurostimulation is pleased to offer Trainee Travel Award Scholarships to eligible attendees who demonstrate interest in the field of neuromodulation. The travel awards offer an opportunity to attend an outstanding scientific program and interact with internationally distinguished researchers and scientists in the field of ECT and neuromodulation. This award can be used to request reimbursement for travel costs associated with attending the conference, including airfare, hotel, ground transportation.

Eligibility:

- Selections will be made based on strength of the personal statement, letter of recommendation and need for travel funding
- To receive the travel award, winners are expected to attend the entire meeting, be present for the recognition event, and participate in the ISEN mentor/mentee program
- Previous Travel Awardees are not eligible to apply
- Trainee Award: medical student, fellow, post-doctoral fellow, resident

Procedure for application:

Application packets should include the following documents:

- Application form
- Updated curriculum vitae or resume
- At least one letter of recommendation highlighting the trainee's interest in ECT and neurostimulation
- Personal statement articulating a compelling reason for wanting to attend the Annual Meeting (Max: 250 word)
- Complete applications must be submitted for consideration via email to meetings@isen-ect.org by 5:00 pm EST on February 19th, 2024

Award benefits:

- $1,000 for travel expenses to the ISEN Annual Meeting
- Annual Meeting registration
- A one-year ISEN membership

Award notification:

- Award recipients will be notified by email
- Applicants chosen for an award must confirm that they will attend the meeting within one (1) week of notification of selection
- Awardees who are selected and accepted but are unable to attend the full ISEN meeting will forfeit the award
- The award will be presented at the Society's Annual Meeting
